PETER REICHEL'T'S STORY

FROM PASTOR CHRIS

FIX YOUR GAZE ON THE WORD

“Looking unto Jesus the author and finisher of our faith...”
(Hebrews 12:2).

In practicing this lifestyle of faith, the most vital principle is to act on the Word. God always lets us know that if we act on His Word, we'll see His glory. His Word always comes first.

In John chapter five, there's a remarkable account of a man at the pool of Bethesda who had been sick for 38 long years. When Jesus saw him, He asked him, “Do you want to get well?” He knew the man had been in that condition for a long time. The man went on to recount all the limitations he was faced with.

Then, Jesus said to him, “Get up, pick up your mat, and walk” (John 5:8 GNB). Notice that the Lord didn't touch him or do anything spectacular. He simply spoke and the man acted on His Word and was healed.

Understand that when Peter stepped out of that boat in Matthew 14:29, he was acting on the Word of the Master that said, “Come.”

It was this Word that held him up on the raging sea, in defiance of all natural laws. Ordinarily, it's impossible for a man to walk on water, but on the Word of Jesus, Peter did!

However, the next verses record that when Peter, “...saw the wind boisterous, he was afraid; and beginning to sink, he cried, saying, Lord, save me. And immediately Jesus stretched forth his hand, and caught him, and said unto him, O thou of little faith, wherefore didst thou doubt? (Matthew 14:30-31).

Peter doubted, and this short-circuited the power of the Word and he began to sink. But the fact remains that he walked on the water by acting on the Word of Jesus. As long as his focus was on Jesus, he didn't sink. However, the moment he shifted his gaze and attention from the Lord to the fierceness of the wind, he gave room for doubt and fear and began to sink.

Hebrews 12:2 is very instructive. It says, “Looking unto Jesus the author and finisher of our faith...” The original Greek rendering of this Scripture reads, “Looking away unto Jesus...” This means to turn away from everything else and fix your gaze on Jesus. In other words, don't get distracted by the things happening around you; instead, concentrate on God's Word.

This, however, doesn't mean you're living in denial; you're simply denying the circumstances the power to dictate the way your life should go. If Peter had let his attention remain on Jesus, he wouldn't have considered the contrary circumstances and would have continued walking on the water.

Walk every day with your eyes fixed on Him. As you keep your gaze on Jesus, you're sure to walk through the storms of life victorious. The way to stay your gaze on Jesus is to make His Word your focus, and that's by meditation.

The Bible says in Joshua 1:8, “This book of the law [the Word of God] shall not depart out of thy mouth; but thou shalt meditate therein day and night, that thou mayest observe to do according to all that is written therein: for then thou shalt make thy way prosperous, and then thou shalt have good success.”

When you meditate on God's Word, it takes up residence in your spirit and produces what it talks about in you. In life, you may face difficulties and impossible situations, but they don't have to dictate the way your life should go.

Look away from those difficulties unto Jesus by staying your gaze on His Word. If it's a problem in your body, take hold of God's Word that speaks of your divine healing and health. As you keep meditating on it, it won't be long before your body becomes a reflection of what it talks about.

A TESTIMONY

TO ALL Peter Reichelt's Story

Growing up in Germany, I was healthy. I lived a sound and wonderful life,” Peter Reichelt begins his story. In recent years, the 34-year-old man had relocated to Switzerland and set up a construction company. Things were going well at work and he had even gotten married, but he was beginning to feel the strain of his many responsibilities.

Peter recollects: “There was a lot of pressure on me and it was becoming too much to handle, but I tried to cope. Then, one day in 2021, I heard a banging sound in my ear and a continuous long beeping sound started in both ears. The sound wouldn’t stop, no matter what I did.”

The ringing sound was stressful and distressing for Peter. He visited several specialists and subjected himself to various treatments to halt the noise. However, there was no respite. Eventually, he was diagnosed with tinnitus, a medically incurable disease that causes the affected person to perceive disturbing sounds that others do not.

“Just like that, my life went from wonderful to the opposite,” Peter says. “The ringing was so loud that I couldn’t sleep. Even if I managed to doze off, the noise would wake me. I couldn’t relax or do anything. My work, my relationships, everything was affected. In the mornings, I got up tense and I was always tired. I love reading my bible, but I had to reduce my quiet times as I couldn’t concentrate longer than 10 minutes because of the constant noise.”

For the next two years, Peter was subjected to an excruciating existence. Living in the quiet suburbs used to be a pleasant experience for him, but the noiseless environment made the ringing louder than ever, especially at night.

“The ringing was so loud that I couldn’t sleep. Even if I managed to doze off, the noise would wake me. I couldn’t relax or do anything. My work, my relationships, everything was affected. In the mornings, I got up tense and I was always tired.”

“From the day the tinnitus started, I also suffered nightmares. These crazy creatures would come and kick me in my dreams. The doctors told me that the condition might stop on its own one day. But since there was no cure for tinnitus, I would have to live with it,” he reminisced.

The constancy of this relentless, intrusive sound had dramatically changed all aspects of Peter’s life. He went from being a healthy and spirited young man to one who experienced increasing anxiety, sadness, loss of concentration, sleeplessness, declining eating habits, and frequent mood swings.

Unwilling to live a day longer in this condition, he decided to attend the Healing Streams Live Healing Services in March 2023. “Some people introduced me to the ministry of Pastor Chris. That was how I found out about the Healing Streams. I had decided that this would not keep happening to me. I had to overcome this condition,” he determined.

Resolute, Peter made his way from Switzerland to Lagos, Nigeria, and participated in the program onsite at the Healing Streams studio. He waited on the healing line, highly anticipating his miracle. His moment came when the man of God, Pastor Chris, laid hands on him and commanded the sickness out of his body. Peter fell under the power of the Holy Spirit. When he arose, he was completely free. He rejoiced for his miracle and glorified the Lord.

Reliving the blissful moments from that point on, he says, “That day, I was very excited. So many people got healed right before my eyes. As Pastor Chris ministered to me, I received my healing immediately. Afterward, I returned to my hotel room. For the first time in a long while, I slept through the night. There were no nightmares and no ringing sound. It was all gone. I’m healed today and I’m very well.”

“As Pastor Chris ministered to me, I received my healing immediately...For the first time in a long while, I slept through the night. There were no nightmares and no ringing sound.”

Peter went home and resumed life with renewed passion and fervor. There has been a turnaround in everything connected to him, and he has a remarkable story to tell.

Returning to testify at a recent healing service, he says, “This testimony means a lot to me. You can’t see tinnitus, so even the people around me didn’t truly understand what I was going through. My life was destroyed before but now I’m back to life.”

The Lord is gracious and kind. Indeed, He is great and greatly to be praised. Peter’s life is back on track, to the glory of God. To anyone who is looking for a miracle, he exhorts, “Wherever you are, whatever your case, just receive your healing. It is available to you now. Believe that God can do it for you and when His Word comes to you, just receive.”

Giving a note of gratitude and appreciation, Peter’s final words are for the man of God, Pastor Chris: “Pastor, I love you. You have blessed my life so much with your teachings. May the Lord bless you and increase His blessings upon your life. My healing is a testimony to all. I share it with others and they get healed.”

RELIVING MOMENTS OF MAGNIFICENCE

at the 10th Edition of the Healing Streams Live Healing Services with Pastor Chris

The tenth edition of the Healing Streams Live Healing Services with Pastor Chris which was held in March 2024 was a crescendo of celestial wonders. Friday the 15th to Sunday the 17th of March earmarked a weekend of divine interventions and awesome celebrations.

Boundaries of nationality and language dissolved in the face of miraculous healings and profound revelations. Transmitted in thousands of languages, the transformative impact of the Healing Streams resounded in all nations across the globe.

Next was a stimulating conversation among senior ministers. They talked about the Healing Streams as a divine orchestration and urged the audience to seize their long-awaited miracles with unwavering faith and determination.

“Healing Streams is indeed the fulfillment of prophecy. As the man of God said, we’re going to see greater glory than we’ve seen in previous years. Prepare for an avalanche of miracles. Where you are, all you need to do is act on the Word of God,” Reverend Tom Amenkhienan encouraged.

Reverend Ray Okocha emphasized that “What medical science has declared impossible, we will see them happen. Where you are is the healing center. The power of God will visit you and heal you. But you must share your testimony.”

The airwaves pulsed with excitement as testifiers were featured in the live program. They shared life-altering testimonies, and each one was a testament to the undeniable power of faith.

Chang from China

In 2007, Chang from China felt something was wrong, so she went to the hospital for a check-up and was diagnosed with acute nephritis. Subsequently, her body became fatigued, forcing her to stay in bed for long hours. The pain and stiffness in her body became so intense that she had to hold her knees to climb the stairs. Having endured this condition for 15 years, Chang was still facing a future of constant medications and more complications from the drugs’ side effects.

However, when she discovered the Healing Streams in July 2022, she was opportune to translate the program into her language. During the ministration, she had a divine

In the opening moments of every healing service, the worldwide congregation of participants joined the heavenly chorus of worship led by Loveworld Singers. Starting with prayers of thanksgiving, Pastor Deola Phillips – Director of the Healing School – proceeded to set the stage with stirring reminders of God’s benevolent love, igniting hearts with hope and expectation.

Pastor Deola Phillips

“Welcome to the March 2024 Healing Streams Live Healing Services with Pastor Chris,” she said. “Here, all limits are taken off. For everyone who is sick, healing is coming to you today. No one will have their expectations cut short because the power of God is going to touch you wherever you are. There is no distance in the realm of the Spirit. As the man of God speaks out, healing is coming to you.”

encounter that changed her life forever. Chang is full of vigor and strength. By divine enablement, she can do all that she couldn't before. Hallelujah!

This and many other testimonies poured forth and increased faith in many hearts. Rapturous shouts of praise filled the air as the congregation heard all the marvelous deeds wrought by the power of God.

On the many tales of triumph by faith that had been shared and the ones that would soon follow, Evangelist Dr. Eddy Owase commented thus: "There's no sickness, disease, or infection that can survive in you. When the man of God speaks to you, that's the voice of God coming to you. It doesn't matter how long it has been, in a few seconds, God will change your life."

The worship segments that came after the testimonies directed every participant's focus to the One with whom all things are possible. Singing praises to the Almighty God, many let go of their troubles and thanked God for their blessings and miracles.

The entrance of the man of God, Pastor Chris, into the arena was a sight that brought solace to many. His profound teachings on the essence of the Holy Spirit illuminated God's boundless love and ignited a fervor of belief and deep anticipation.

Citing John chapter 14, the man of God expatiated: "The reason you're convinced about Jesus is that the Holy Spirit helps you to believe. He was sent to guide you into all truth. He knows the problem and the solution."

He expounded that people of the world depend on their senses, but that those who depend on the Holy Spirit have the greatest advantage. "The Holy Spirit helps you, teaches you, and convinces you. I cannot be confused because I have the Holy Spirit," he said.

The atmosphere was fully charged as Pastor Chris ministered to those on the physical and online healing lines. He stretched forth his hands and declared wholeness and restoration to billions watching, and waves of healing swept across the globe, transcending all barriers.

Sicknesses were checked out, and diseases and disabilities yielded to the matchless Name of Jesus. Testimonies poured in from every corner of the globe, bearing witness to the life-changing impact of the Healing Streams.

Franca from Canada

For 14 years, Franca from Canada suffered from osteoarthritis, fibromyalgia, depression, and osteoporosis. She relied heavily on painkillers to get through each day. During the healing services, as the man of God ministered healing to all, she was made whole. Franca testifies: "Now, I can sit and get up freely by myself. For once in my life, I'm pain-free."

Nearly all her life, 41-year-old Aimee from the USA had to endure myriad conditions that marred her life. Diagnosed with myasthenia gravis, type 2 diabetes, gastroparesis, and Sjögren's Syndrome, she experienced many symptoms that left her weak, dizzy, and unable to move most of the time. Seeking an end to her ordeal, Aimee was expectant as Pastor Chris proclaimed healing to people in every nation.

She describes her healing encounter thus: "Feeling returned to every part of my body as my nerves revived. I felt all the pain draining from my body. I suffered so many chronic illnesses throughout my lifetime, but in one moment, Jesus took all the sicknesses from me."

Amid the rejoicing and felicitations, the man of God offered heartfelt prayers for families, nations, and leaders, invoking peace and prosperity upon the world. He also called for those who hadn't received salvation and led them in a brief prayer to accept Jesus as their Lord.

Long after the curtains closed on this monumental event, the memories of divine encounters linger in the hearts and minds of all who witnessed the glorious wonders. The undeniable reality of miracles and the unrivaled authority of God's Word reverberate across the whole earth. Glory to God!

Glory and Mmeyene

How Mmeyene Came Back To Life

Mmeyene-Abasi was a precious gift that was born to her parents after 20 years of struggling with infertility. In the quiet hours of July 17th, 2023, however, her mother – Glory – would confront her worst fears. As was her custom, Glory checked on her child at various points throughout the night. When she checked at 2 AM, a sleepy Mmeyene had called out to her mother and then returned to sleep when she was reassured that it wasn't yet dawn.

At 4 AM, Glory woke up to start her day and attempted to wake her daughter. With keen alarm, she discovered that Mmeyene was unresponsive. Despite frantic efforts to revive the child, she remained motionless. Her teeth were clenched, her neck twisted to one side, and her body was cold. Little Mmeyene had passed on in her sleep. Despair gripped the household as her parents and family lamented in stunned disbelief, trying to face the possibility of losing her forever.

In what would otherwise have been a hopeless situation, Esther – a neighbor – brought hope and sparked faith for the miraculous. She remembered astonishing tales of healing and miracles wrought through the Healing to the Nations Magazine and decided to act quickly.

Placing a copy of the magazine on Mmeyene, Esther invoked divine intervention as she prayed fervently for the girl's recovery. All it took was a few minutes for Mmeyene to respond. The little girl sneezed and yawned as she came back to life. Defying the odds, her once lifeless body burst forth with vitality. Everyone in the household erupted in joy and relief; tears streamed down their faces as they witnessed this incredible turnaround.

Esther

Today, Mmeyene is thriving in health. She is a living testament to the power of faith and her story offers solace and inspiration to all who hear it. Glory is overwhelmed with gratitude, and she extends heartfelt thanks, saying, "Thank you, Pastor Chris, for the blessing of the Healing to the Nations Magazine. Thank you, dear partners of the Healing School, for your role in making this material available. God bless you all, in Jesus' Name. Amen."

START YOUR DAY WITH A WALK: HERE'S WHY

For most people, moving around isn't a priority when they wake up. While it's more appealing to ease into the day slowly, there are many health benefits to starting your day with a brisk walk. Whether it's a turn around your street or part of your daily commute to work or school, here are some reasons to consider adding a walk to your morning routine.

- Enhance Energy Levels: Walking for 20 minutes is more energizing than a cup of coffee and is very effective for shaking off morning fatigue. Studies show that walks are more vitalizing and refreshing when done outdoors, rather than indoors. So, consider ditching the treadmill.
- Enhance Your Mood: Walking increases blood flow and circulation, which produces psychological advantages to morning walks including boosting your self-esteem and mood, and reducing anxiety, fatigue, stress, and other symptoms of depression.
- Tone Your Muscles: It is recommended that you take your walks at a moderately brisk and steady pace to strengthen your muscles. Also, alternate walking up and down hills, and add climbing to enhance the muscle toning.
- Improve Mental Health: You think and focus better all day when you start your day with a good walk. Walking also encourages creative thinking, innovative ideas, and problem-solving. You may also consider inviting your colleagues to walk with you for brainstorming sessions, rather than staying cooped up in a conference room.
- Improve Sleep Quality: Adding a 30-minute exercise window to your morning routine will improve your sleep hygiene and curb insomnia. Walking releases hormones that make you feel good and reduce stress so that you sleep well and wake up relaxed and ready to tackle the next day.
- Achieve Fitness and Health Goals in One Go: Morning walks help you achieve your physical fitness activities early each day, before distractions from work, studies, and other obligations set in. Also, you may burn up to 150 calories in a steady 30-minute walk, which will work wonders for your weight loss goals when paired with a healthy diet. Walking also improves your body's immunity and may help prevent/manage various health conditions.

In the summertime, morning walks ensure that you're done exercising before the day gets too hot. Remember to drink water to stay hydrated before and after exercising. Lastly, having put in the work to exercise your body so early in the day, you're more likely to make healthier choices throughout the day. For example, breaking for lunch rather than snacking on junk food.

Tips For Setting Up A Morning Walk Routine

- Select your walking outfit and lay it out the night before.
- Set your alarm to 30 minutes earlier to fit exercise into your day.
- Pick out a trail. Sticking to the same route helps.
- Find a friend, colleague, or family member to walk with. Talking and walking together will keep you inspired.
- Incorporate walking into your daily travel routine if you need to make time. Consider getting off one bus stop away or parking your car farther from the office building.

Faith's Proclamations OF HEALING & HEALTH

“My son, attend to my words; incline thine ear unto my sayings. Let them not depart from thine eyes; keep them in the midst of thine heart. For they are life unto those that find them, and health to all their flesh” (Proverbs 4:20-22).

The marginal reference in some Bibles gives the word “medicine” for “health” in Proverbs 4:22. So it can read thus: “For they are life unto those that find them, and medicine to all their flesh.” The Word of God is medicine. When you meditate on God’s Word, it works like medicine in your body. You can transform your life by meditating on God’s Word. It’s that powerful.

Speaking on the potency of meditation, the Apostle Paul admonished Timothy to “Meditate upon these things; give thyself wholly to them; that thy profiting may appear to all” (1 Timothy 4:15). The word “appear” in this verse is the Greek word “phaneros,” which means to spread abroad widely and openly. When you meditate on the Word of God, it will produce results in you, and others will see your progress and notice remarkable changes in your life.

CONFESSIONS

I am a custodian of the higher life in Christ. Therefore, nothing contrary to that life can be found in me. I exude the glory and the beauty of Christ always, and my spirit, soul, and body manifest this grace. I live and enjoy eternal life now and always.

The Word of God is my testimony. Its declarations are my meditations; thus, I live in the reality of what God has said concerning my health. I am the one whom the Lord has made strong, energetic, and victorious. I am a manifestation of God’s agenda of health for all.

The environment in which I live is Christ. Here, there is no health scare, infection, or pandemic. No matter what happens to those in the world, I stand firm in faith, and I enjoy my glorious life now. I bask in the provisions of Christ for my life, health, and all that concern me.

The Lord Almighty is my defense and fortress. Satan has nothing in me because I am full of the Holy Spirit at all times. I have a wholesome tongue; my words sculpt my life following God’s perfect will. Therefore, I walk in divine health every day.

My eyes of understanding are enlightened; I see the invisible and I am empowered to do the impossible. My life goes only in the direction of God’s purpose; therefore, I’ll never be sick. I only grow from strength to strength, victory to victory. Amen.

My origin is in God! I was born, not of blood, the will of flesh, nor the will of man. I am born of God. Therefore,

I have overcome the world and its systems. The Greater One lives in me in His fullness, I am full of life and vitality. I will never be sick!

Dear Father, thank You for my victory over death and hell. Thank You for bringing me into life and immortality through Your Word. The law of the Spirit of life in Christ Jesus works in me. I am a life-giving spirit, and I dispense life to everyone and everything around me.

My life is a manifestation of the virtues and perfections of divinity. From the crown of my head to the soles of my feet, I am full of life and divine health. No sickness, disease, or infirmity can fasten itself to my body.

I choose and live the good life of divine health, abundance, joy, strength, and vitality. I can never be disadvantaged because I am a child of the Most High God. I manifest the excellence of the Spirit, and the life of God in me is superior to the devil and his works.

My faith is the victory that overcomes every challenge to my health. My health shines forth today and every day. I am a partaker of the divine nature and dwell in Zion; therefore, I don’t get sick. I am born for health, success, and the glory of God. Hallelujah!

I am fearless, for death has been paralyzed and defeated by the Lord Jesus, and when He did it, I was in Him! I boldly exercise my divine rights in Christ, taming my body and environment with dominion. Nothing shall by any means hurt me. Glory to God!
